Om Prakash Tak
(Founder SRE)

Hello, I'm Om Prakash Tak, founder of Shree Ram Enterprises.

After completing my BBA, I decided to follow my passion for stone art and design. I started this journey to bring unique and beautiful stone creations to people who truly value quality and craftsmanship.

Through Shree Ram Enterprises, I want to showcase the beauty of Indian stone art in a way that blends tradition with new ideas. I travel across India to explore different designs, techniques, and inspirations so that our work always stays fresh and meaningful. Every piece we create carries a story of hard work, heritage, and dedication.

My aim is simple – to deliver the best quality stone art that makes every space stand out and to take our traditional art to a new level. I believe that when you work with honesty, focus, and passion, everything falls into place. Thank you for being a part of Shree Ram Enterprises. Together, let's create designs that will be remembered for generations.
